

8 Webster Road, NAMBOUR

Original Queenslander on the Market call Diana today!

Country kitchen with plenty of space to prepare meals and imagine eating on the timber deck looking over the reserve this home has the charm of yesteryear!

Originally built in 1940's, this home has oodles of character. The current owner has enjoyed the light filled generous rooms, fully fenced back yard which leads down to a reserve and its easy proximity to all of Nambour's shopping centres, convenience of bus stop at the door step, within an easy walk of the train station, hospital whilst also providing a quiet retreat. The covered and approved 8 man spa is nestled in the backyard where you can relax and enjoy the birdlife and views across the garden to the reserve.
