Stunning East Facing Water Views combined with Parkland Privacy.

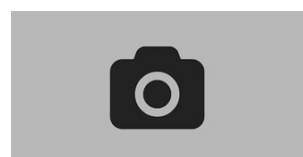

A love affair of some 22 years has come to an end and a new one has started with a recent purchase on the sunshine coast. We are now proud to present this unique Isle Of Capri opportunity.

For you the lucky new homeowner of 64 Amalfi Drive, this may well be the jewel in your crown. As mentioned in the heading a combination of two highly desirable property and lifestyle attributes present within this home. Stunning East facing water views extend to the skylit high rise facade. Combined with Parkland boundary ensuring your privacy as well as the feeling of space, allowing you the opportunity to access the Nerang river and feel the sand between your toes. All of this means only one thing, regardless of whether you want to keep the home and renovate or remove and start again the block itself and position will be the commodity that will assure you longevity and a great return on investment for years to come.

Whatever your needs I'm sure you'll agree even the most astute Gold Coast property enthusiast will understand the value of being only 9
